Being TA at Woodlane High School

Teaching Assistant

The job:

We are looking for an enthusiastic assistant to help pupils to access the curriculum.

Additional training will be arranged for a suitable candidate where necessary, though experience of working with teenagers with learning difficulties would be a distinct advantage.

The post is:

Term time only (approximately 30.5 hours per week, with the opportunity for additional hours)

General information about the school:

Woodlane makes special provision to meet the needs of pupils with a range of barriers to learning. Our pupils may have medical or nursing needs; visual or other sensory impairment, or physical disability. These needs can impact on each pupil's learning and socialization skills, making them socially and emotionally vulnerable.

Please note: pupils at Woodlane do not have emotional or behavioural difficulties or significant learning difficulties as their main special educational need.

The working environment:

- Modern, purpose built accommodation
- Well resourced classrooms
- Excellent opportunities for professional development
- Friendly and supportive staff team
- Small class sizes (typically 8 -10 pupils per class)
- A school ethos that celebrates achievement and encourages respect for others
- A happy school
